BELLAS, former Justice Pro Tem of the CNMI SUPREME COURT, in his personal/individual capacity; ROBERT A. BISON; JAY H. SORENSON; and the UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

Defendants)

1. In March 2005, plaintiff Bradshaw contacted the Consultants Investigative Agency of Hayden ID (Phone 208-762-8729). They furnished the "Locate Plus" certificate (at Exhibit "A") which showed defendant Robert A. Bisom residing in the US at several different addresses from 1989 to 2000 (as redacted by plaintiff to comply with local rules of this court). The last time Mr. Bisom might have been here in residence in the US was possibly in 2000 in Boston, MA, per this locator service. This agency included a note that he might be out of the country--which he is, per his attorney's recent filings in this case.

2. In terms of Mr. Bisom's attorney, Jay H. Sorensen, plaintiff found him in Somis, California, as is detailed in plaintiff's separate filings in case 05-84 on locating defendant Jay H. Sorensen.

3. Jay H. Sorensen is an attorney who first represented Robert A. Bisom before November 14, 1995 on Saipan in the CNMI. Mr. Sorensen handled two or more civil cases for Mr. Bisom from 1995 and thereafter. The last case he for sure worked on was CNMI case 96-1320, which is the basis of this present lawsuit in Federal court.

4. The CNMI Supreme Court rendered its decision on the CNMI case in September 2002 (Appeal Nos. 2000-016, 2000-023 Consolidated, at the CNMILaw website). In a conversation which plaintiff had with Bernadita A. Sablan, Clerk of the CNMI Superior Court on May 26, 2005, Ms Sablan told plaintiff Bradshaw that Mr. Sorensen had filed some more papers on the 96-1320 case after the Supreme Court decision in September 2002--possibly in 2003 or 2004. These filings might have addressed the Bisom settlement with the CNMI or something else.

5. Plaintiff first talked to Ms Sablan on March 2, 2005 when she was asked if Mr. Sorensen still represented Mr. Bisom and whether Mr. Sorensen had ever filed any documents in her court showing a Sorensen termination of or withdrawal from representing Mr. Bisom. She told plaintiff that she did not remember seeing any such documentation from Mr. Bisom or Mr. Sorensen showing a termination of their relationship. She said that she would check her files and call plaintiff back if she found anything. She never called back.

6. Plaintiff again spoke to Ms Sablan several times in May 2005 on case 96-1320. Each time she affirmed that a diligent search of the 96-1320 case file and her other files failed to disclose any termination or withdrawal by Mr. Sorensen from representing Mr. Bisom. In the May 26, 2005 conversation, she agreed to supply plaintiff with an affidavit and/or certification that her files contained no record of any document which would show a termination of the Bisom-Sorensen attorney client relationship.

7. On April 13, 2005, Mr. Anthony Fuller of the California Attorney Service of Ventura, CA served Mr. Sorensen and Mr. Sorensen as attorney for Mr. Bisom with the summons and amended complaint in this case at hand--05-84. In addition, Mr. Fuller served Mr. Sorensen as attorney for Robert A. Bisom with a motion which Robert D. Bradshaw has before the CNMI Superior Court in Saipan on the CNMI case 96-1320.

8. While both Mr. Sorensen and Mr. Bisom have filed objections in this US court objecting to the service on Mr. Sorensen, neither have made any filings in the CNMI Superior Court on case 96-1320 to date, as for as plaintiff Bradshaw now knows, based on his last conversation with the CNMI Clerk of the Superior Court on May 31, 2005. Thus, Mr. Sorensen is presumably still the attorney for Mr. Bisom, although that may have possibly changed in May 2005 when the Idaho law firm of Ramsden and Lyons became the attorney for Mr. Bisom.

9. It appears that in March and April 2005, Jay H. Sorensen was still the legal attorney for Robert A. Bisom and that Mr. Bisom was duly served process in case 05-84 on April 13, 2005 when the California Attorney Service served Mr. Sorensen with the complaint and summons for Mr. Bisom, care of his attorney Jay H. Sorensen.

10. As for as whether Cynthia Sorensen could accept the papers served on her in April 2005 in Somis, CA, this question is addressed in separate filings by Mr. Sorensen and plaintiff Bradshaw in this case 05-84.

DATED this 21st day of June 2005 at St. Maries, Idaho.
